

Press Release

For Immediate Release

June 17, 2009

FBI Indianapolis

Contact: Special Agent Wendy Osborne
(317) 639-3301

2-Year-Old Jada Justice Abducted from Gary, Indiana

INDIANAPOLIS, IN—Michael S. Welch, Special Agent in Charge of the Indianapolis Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and Reginald Harris, Chief of the Gary, Indiana Police Department jointly request the public's assistance in locating JADA JUSTICE.

At approximately 9:40 p.m., June 16, 2009, JADA JUSTICE was taken from a parked vehicle at the Glen Park Gas Station, 1401 East Ridge Road, Gary, Indiana. JUSTICE was in the care of a relative at the time of her disappearance. The Gary Police Department immediately responded to the scene and conducted an extensive search of the surrounding area without success.

JADA JUSTICE is described as a black female who will be 3 years old this August, 2'2" tall, 35 pounds, black hair, brown eyes, and light brown complexion. At the time of her disappearance, she was wearing an orange skirt, a white tank top with orange and green stripes, white sandals and purple underwear. Photographs of JADA JUSTICE are available.

Anyone with information concerning her current whereabouts is requested to contact the FBI Indianapolis Office at 317/639-3301.

All calls are anonymous--not just confidential.